

Community Trainings

Organize Sacramento had a great time talking public transit and recruiting these fantastic PRO Youth and Families leaders to join the Sacramento Transit Riders Union. Youth members engaged in discussing how public transit is important to them and affects their lives.

Organize Sacramento engaged community members at the 2017 Sacramento Earth Day annual event in Southside Park. We used our booth to engage residents in learning and understanding who their City Council members & Regional Transit Board Director are.

Ding-Ding-Ding! We have a winner! Sacramento's Mayor Darrell Steinberg scores 100% on our "Put-the-Name-with-the-Face" Sacramento Regional Transit District Board Director challenge! Through interactive learning community members begin to learn about and recognize local elected officials.

The UC Davis Muslim Student Association invited Organize Sacramento to participate on the panel of 'Game On- Effective Organizing Community Forum. We had a great experience and the panelist selection, which included the Sacramento Area Congregations Together and Friends of Mariko Yamada, was stellar!

Transit 101 Budget Workshop with Organize Sacramento, Sacramento Regional Transit, 350 Sacramento & Sacramento Transit Riders Union. Questions and answers w/ Sacramento Regional Transit Director Henry Li, James from Planning and even more folks from the Finance Department. We appreciate very much that Regional Transit dedicated so much time after regular work hours to meet with community members, and explain parts of their budget with us.

Katie Valenzuela for inviting Organize Sacramento to participate at this year's Calbike at TransForm's Transportation Equity Summit. Advocates, experts, state leaders, students, and community groups focused on connecting state transportation funding to concrete goals that both fight climate change and promote social equity.

We appreciate being asked to present at Assemblymember Kevin McCarty's community "What Can I Do?" event. We met a lot of great folks, and we are excited that so many are ready to dive-in to make great things happen!
